Yearbook Dedication

We, the class of 1972, proudly dedicate the Susquehannock to Mr. Robert Krewson. In many different ways he guided our class through our years at CHS. As our advisor during our junior year, he directed the successful play, Hillbilly Weddin'. Our prom, The Age of Aquarius, left everyone with pleasant memories, thanks to Mr. Krewson's efforts. As art teacher, he created many beautiful May Days, Homecoming, Valentine dances and assemblies. In sincere appreciation, we bestow the highest honor that we, as seniors, can award.

The Class of 1972 is the one hundredth graduating class from Columbia High School. To commemorate this honor, we proudly present a backward glance over the last hundred years of school life at CHS.

OURS

Doorways

Words and Music by Mitch Cooper

The door's open now, let's go through.
The path is clear for us, but it's all new.
The future's there for us,
But we must prepare for love,
For there must we go;
But I would much rather stay.
Stay with you here!

We've gone this far now, we can't wait.
I'd like to turn back, but it's too late.
Life's not that bad, you know;
For all you must do is show
That you really care
About what is here for you.
It's here for you!

I feel I can't go on;
But you are never far Away from me now,
So I'll make it through somehow.
Make it somehow!

I'm ready to go.
For now I must really know!

The class saw the musical "Fiddler on the Roof" to put a perfect finish on the day's Festivities.

May 5, 1972– Miss Zoe Gohn was voted Queen of the May at the Queen's Night Dance with Miss Deb Beck as Maid of Honor. The court consisted of Kim Aston, Barb Graham, Ruth Graham. Fran Long, and Deb Vinelli.

May 20, 1972– The juniors chose the theme, "A Time For Us" to set the mood for a beautiful night of dancing at the Jr.–Sr. Prom. Deb Vinelli was chosen as our Prom Queen to highlight the evening. Thank you Juniors, for a truly wonderful evening.

May 26, 1972– We were proud to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Krewson, who has helped our class very much throughout our years at C.H.S.

As the class waits for graduation, memories of the past, good and bad, will be recalled. Some will be pleased with their memories, and some may say, "if I only had it to do over." In most cases, we can learn something from the past and apply it to the present and future. As we take a backward glance and a forward look, we can keep in mind that "Yesterday is but today's memory, and tomorrow is but today's dreams."

Fall

Fall is – meeting old friends in the excitement of a new session together,
the tempo hastened by the briskness of the air and the crunch of new fallen leaves beneath our feet – of broken shouts of laughter from people caught up in the spirit of competition.
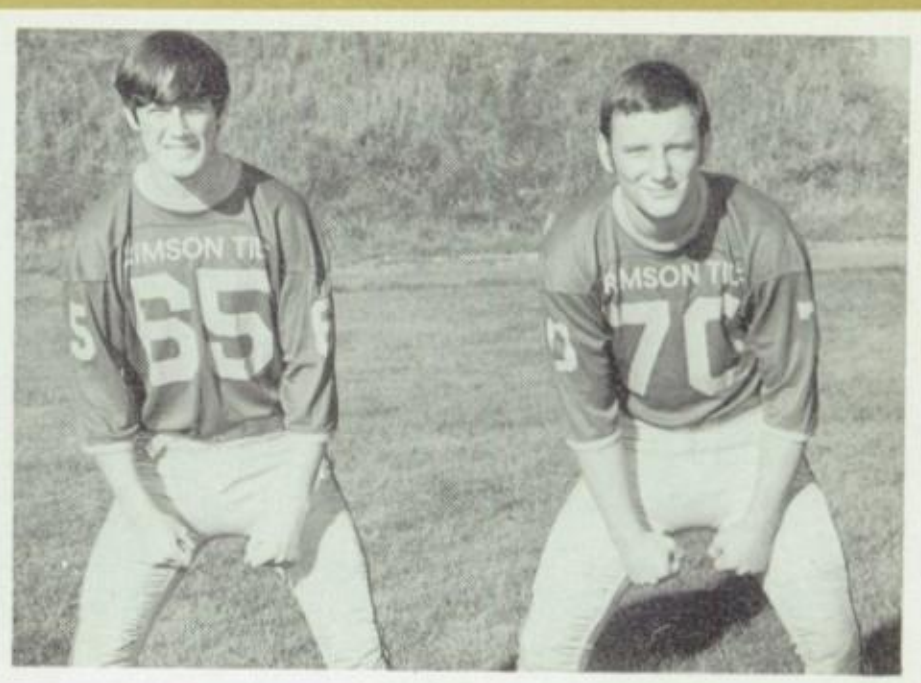
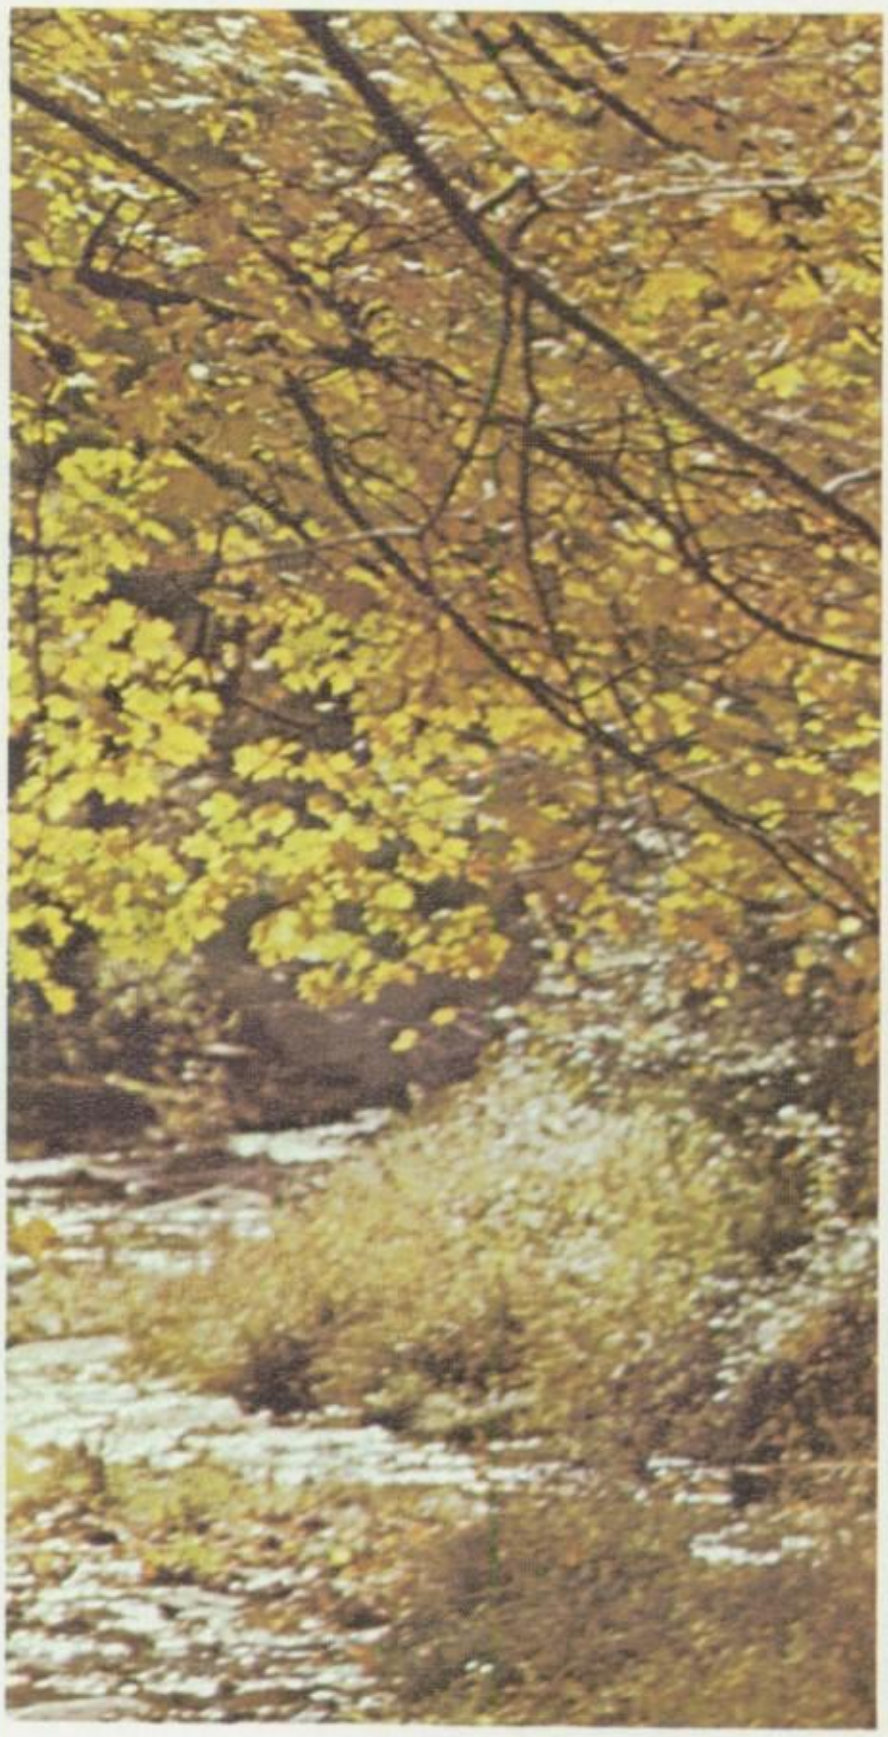
The mood is quick as water racing swiftly ahead of the coming cold.





Winter

The hush of new fallen snow invites everything to come inside.
It creates a silent world
for endless hours of study– thoughts turn inward for moments of quiet meditation.
You listen plaintively
to the melancholy notes of a guitar as you sit nestled in the warmth and glow of a crackling fire.

Spring

The spring rain washes the world clean and puts sparkles on the flowers in your back yard.
And you have a new dress made out of pink blossoms for the school prom. Sitting on the grass with the sun warm on your shoulders you're thinking about the baseball game– anxious to feel the smoothness of the bat in your hand, hoping to barely make it home by sliding – smiling
as the dirt and gravel scratch and brush at your skin – and you don't mind, it's spring.

Summer

Relieved that your last exam is over, you've cleaned out your locker saving that ragged note from your special friend.
A little sadly you said good-by and best wishes to the graduates. Tomorrow, you'll head for the pool and spend the afternoon dreaming of all the things you want to do during the long and lazy summer that stretches out ahead.

THE CELL WAS TRIED SEVERAL TIMES IT GAVE OFF VOLTS. THE AMPERES WERE AND ONE OF THE BY-PRODUCTS WAS WATER. THE POT WOULD START TO CRACK IF KEPT IN CONTINUOUSLY
CONCLUSIONS
IMPROVEMENTS MUST BE MADE TO THIS CELL IF IT IS TO WORK CONSTANTLY. A WAY MUST BE FOUND TO REMOVE THE THE POT MUST BE REPLACED BY SOMETHING BETTER. IT PRODUCED AN AVERAGE VOLTS AND AMPERES

THE SENIOR CLASS TRIP?

NEW YORK WILL NEVER BE THE SAME!

On April 28, 1972 the senior class stormed New York. This is some idea of what went on there!

The seniors visited NBC, The United Naitons Building, Chinatown, took a tour of New York by bus, and that evening saw the musical "Fiddler On The Roof."

And if you all promise to be good— you will get a free ice cream cone after the show!

I guess I really should buy something instead of just looking around.

Boy! I can't wait till it's time to eat!

Ha! Ha! We know something you don't know!
